

Announcing a free community presentation by Dr. James Snyder

Wichita State University

“Risk, resilience, and resources: Psychosocial interventions and advocacy to promote healthy families and child development”

Sept 26th, 4-5:00
OSU-Tulsa,
North Hall 151

Dr. Snyder is a Distinguished Professor of psychology who studies risk and protective factors associated with the development of conduct problems, aggression, anxiety disorders, and depression.

CEU credits available

Co-sponsored by

OSU Center for Family Resilience, OSU Dept. of Human Development &
Family Science, and Community Service Council of Tulsa

Questions? Contact Dr. Criss, michael.criss@okstate.edu